Get a Little Dirty This Valentine's Day at Cupid's Cleanup

San Diego, CA – Looking for something to do this Valentine's Day weekend? Get a little dirty and help clean up the environment by volunteering at I Love A Clean San Diego's (ILACSD) annual Cupid's Cleanup! This year's cleanup will be held on Sunday, February 12th from 10am – 12 noon at Del Mar Powerhouse Park. Renew your love for San Diego's outdoor areas by spending your Sunday morning on the beach – cleaning up for a cause.

Join other eco-minded singles, couples, and friends as they show their love for a clean San Diego this Valentine's Day. Spend the morning with someone you love, or perhaps find a like-minded single to share the special day with. Events like Cupid's Cleanup are vital to the health of our local environment. Keeping trash out of our ocean not only helps the animals who live there, but also makes it safer for all San Diego residents to swim, surf and play in our coastal waters.

Like all cleanups, each volunteer must sign a waiver to participate and any minors require an additional parent signature. Volunteers should wear closed-toed shoes and a winning smile, and don't forget your own reusable water bottle. ILACSD will provide all necessary supplies: water, snacks and community service verification forms. To sign up, send an email to jdeleon@cleansd.org or call 619.704.2778.

Date: Sunday, February 12th

Time: 10:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.

Cleanup Location: Del Mar Powerhouse Park, 1658 Coast Boulevard, Del Mar, CA 92014.
