Governor Jerry Brown Appoints I Love A Clean San Diego Board Member to CA State Park and Recreation Commission

San Diego, CA – I Love A Clean San Diego Board Member and Chula Vista resident Myrian Solis Coronel has been appointed to the California State Park and Recreation Commission. As the Partnership Program Manager for Diversity & Inclusion at REI - Recreational Equipment, Inc., Ms. Solis Coronel has a strong background in community engagement, public relations and marketing as well as a passion for the outdoors. Prior to joining REI, she worked at KPBS (the local PBS and NPR affiliate) for seven years where she developed and implemented media and outreach campaigns. During her tenure at KPBS, Solis Coronel helped launch V-me's, the Spanish language public television network outreach initiative nationwide. Solis Coronel joined the I Love A Clean San Diego Board of Directors in 2012.

The State Park and Recreation Commission has specific authorities and responsibilities which are defined in California law. These include the approval of general plans for units of the State Park System, classifying units of the System, establishing general policies for the guidance of the Director of State Parks in the administration, protection and development of the System, and recommending to the Director a comprehensive recreation policy for the state.

Solis Coronel has strong ties to the community where she works and plays. She is co-creator of the Latina Giving Circle, an organization aimed to mobilize philanthropy, volunteerism and leadership opportunities amongst the San Diego's Latina community. She was a member of The San Diego Foundation's Environment Working Group where she helped to oversee grantmaking and donor engagement strategies related to critical environmental programs countywide. She recently served as Vice President for MANA de San Diego, a National Latina Organization with 16 chapters nationally, and is a former Los Aztecas (SDSU) committee member. Solis Coronel is a graduate of both the HOPE Leadership Institute and LEAD San Diego. She is former media co-chair for the Cesar E. Chavez Commemorative Committee and the All People's Breakfast, former council member of the UCSD Hispanic Scholarship Fund and diversity committee member for the Girls Scouts, San Diego – Imperial County.

I Love A Clean San Diego is the go-to organization for programs that enhance and conserve the local environment. Through recycling, education and cleanups of our most beloved areas, I Love A Clean San Diego is the only community-based organization dedicated to the future of the entire county – from inland to the coast, in every community, for generations to come.
